

KS3 Art: Key Skills And Concepts	Emerging	Developing	Securing	Mastering
Inspiration	You have looked at existing Artist's work and artefacts from other parts of the world. You have attempted to write about the work that you have seen. Your understanding of different cultures and contemporary and historical Art is emerging.	You have looked at Artist's work and artefacts from around the world to inspire your own artwork. You are able to write reflectively about the work that you have seen. You have a basic understanding of different cultures, contemporary and historical Art.	You are demonstrating your understanding of context within Art and Design from across the world, analysing what you see with confidence, making links to your own artwork. You are able to understand social factors that may affect the work.	You are demonstrating a confident and extensive understanding of context within Art and Design from across the world, and are able to write fluently and make informed links to your own artwork. You are able to make well considered judgments and form opinions.
Media	You have tried using a range of media. You improve your work but it's often unrefined.	You have been successful in using a range of media to produce your own art. You are able to refine your work as it progresses.	You have used a range of media with confidence to produce good quality artwork that meets your creative intention. Your creative intention has been well considered.	You are able to use a full range of media fluently, and your artwork is excellent. You take care to consider the best use of a particular media and make well informed decisions about how to achieve your desired outcome.
Formal Elements	You have created artwork using the formal elements, however your work is often unrefined.	You have created artwork using the formal elements and have been successful in achieving your creative intentions.	You have demonstrated a competent ability to use the formal elements within your own artwork to produce good quality and well considered artwork.	You have demonstrated a confident ability to use the formal elements within your own artwork with precision and control. You have grasped an excellent understanding of how to use these formal elements effectively.
Presentation	You are beginning to think about presentation in your book including written work and practical art.	You are taking care with presentation and have an awareness of how you should present your work in a sketchbook.	You are able to present your work in your sketchbook with care and well considered layout to produce an effective sketchbook. Your writing is thorough and well considered. You are able to evaluate your work.	You are able to present your work in your sketchbook with creativity and flare. Your writing is extensive and multi-layered offering a deep insight into what you write about. You are able to evaluate your own and others work effectively making informed comments and judgements.
Responding	You are working towards being able to produce something creative from your own ideas.	You have produced something creative from your own ideas.	You have confidently produced something personal and meaningful from your own ideas.	You have produced something well considered and sophisticated, skilfully realising your intentions.